POLICE RUN DOWN CINCINNATI KID

He de- clared in court that he could not pay his debts because he had sold the goods and lost the money. $5,000 in a poker game in New York. ## Doughty Old Geronimo Takes His 8th Wife

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GUTHRIE, OKLA., January 21.—It is not true. Geronimo is still the brave warrior of old. Braver than ever, for on Christmas Day the famous Apache warrior married Mary Loto, the widow of a prominent Indian, who died two years ago, and the couple are now living together in Geronimo's tepee, on the Indian reservation, just outside of Lawton, Oklahoma.

This is Geronimo's eighth matrimonial venture. While the old warrior has adopted the ways of the pale-face in many respects, particularly in his religious observances, he would not have a clergyman perform the ceremony. He simply went over to the bride's tepee and took her to his own home.

Not until to-day did he divulge his secret, and none of the tribe know of it. Ger- onimo is seventy-six years old. His seventh wife died two years ago.

MOROCCO BETTER THAN PAWN SHOP GRANT TO TOAST GEN. LEE'S MEMORY

Investors There Think They Are Losing Money if They Don't Make 40 Per Cent.

Son of Famous Union Officer Will Speak at Dinner of Southerners.

80 TO 100 PER CENT. OFTEN LADIES TAKE PART IN AFFAIR

Mr. Gummere, American Min- ister, Tells of Huge Profits Made in Morocco.

(By Associated Press.) ALGECIRAS, SPAIN, Jan. 21.—The American delegates to the Moroccan conference, as the result of talks with father's old foe, General Robert E. Lee, in his address at the dinner of the Con- federate Veteran Camp of New York, in the Astor Gallery of the Waldorf-Astoria next Wednesday evening. This fact alone would make the coming ban- quet unique in interest, but the South- erners who are managing the affair have added another feature to the festivity that will attract widespread attention.

For the first time in the history of the camp, women will sit at table with the men, and take part in the affair. In- stead of being relegated to the galleries and the boxes, the women will add the splendor of their gowns to the gorgeous decorations of the tables.

The dinner is to be given in memory of General Lee, and it will be the occasion of an outpouring of Southern sentiment such as this city seldom has seen. Major Edward Owen, commander of the camp, will preside. On his left will sit General Joseph Wheeler, while General Grant will be on the right. Besides the toast, "Gen- eral R. E. Lee," to which General Grant will respond, General Wheeler will speak about "The Private Soldier of the Con- federacy." Colonel G. G. G. Jordan, of Georgia, will speak about the "Women of the Confederacy," and F. Hopkinson Smith's subject will be "Old Plantation Days."

The guests of honor, besides those men, which will be the president of the South- ern Society and the presidents of the various State Societies in New York. Commander W. H. Bates, of U. S. Grant Post, G. A. R., will be there, and Corporal Tanner is expected. The gal- leries and boxes will be filled with women, and many 200 more guests will come later to enjoy the dancing in the grand ballroom, which will follow the banquet.

Some tons of this literature, Mr. Gum- mere said, reached the American legation every year for distribution among the Arabs. Mr. Gummere, however, con- firmed many of the reports of the un- derdeveloped riches of the country. He said the soil need only be scratched to produce each year two abundant crops of corn, barley and vegetables. Ameri- can agricultural machinery, according to Mr. Gummere, is greatly needed in Mor-occo, as the primitive wooden plow is still used. Moreover, Morocco needs railroads, telegraphs, electricity and a hundred of other conveniences which it could have if the country was opened, but against these things the Moors hith- erto have resolutely set their faces.

Mr. Gummere said that, although a considerable quantity of American flour, petroleum and lead, the last named for the use of the Spanish population, is imported, yet these things are brought through Morocco, Hamburg and other European ports upon European ships, and are distributed by European traders.

Nine-tenths of the flour imported is American. The Standard Oil Company has an exclusive market in Morocco, having displaced Russian oil concerns.

Much of the Moroccan market, Mr. Gummere thinks, could be occupied by American merchants if a direct steam- ship line was established.

Speaking of the huge profits made in Morocco, Mr. Gummere remarked that investors there think they are losing money if they do not make from 30 to 40 per cent. profit, while 80 to 100 per cent. is not rare.

On Advice of Counsel. Robinson Crusoe was talking to the par- rot.

"Polly want a cracker?" he asked. "I refuse to answer," replied the bird, "on advice of counsel."

Thus we see that the parrot was not as green as he looked.

GREAT INTEREST IN INDOOR MEET

Relay Races to Be the Feature of the Various Events.

TO GIVE HANDSOME PRIZES

Biggest Institutions of South to Come in, With Aggregate of Three Hundred Entries.

The night of February 10th, which is to be the occasion of the first indoor track meet ever held in the South, is now a by-word in the mouths of all lovers of sport and all who take the least interest in college athletics. Hereofore the public has been used to only baseball and foot- ball; now it is to be given a treat, which will not be surpassed in either excitement or interest by either of the two college games. It may be safely stated that the world of college sport there is nothing equal to a relay race, and this will be the leading feature of the coming meet.

These from the fact that the biggest in- stitutions in the South are to take part, will be of an unusual excitement, for each team will have its friends, whose cheering will not be surpassed by that which is heard at the great foot-ball games played among them.

The list of those who have signed their intention of taking part, has been added to, and now stands as follows: University of Virginia, Virginia Polytechnic In- stitute, Georgetown University, George Washington University, University of North Carolina, North Carolina Agricul- tural and Mechanical College, Trinity Col- lege, Auburn University, of Alabama; William and Mary College, Richmond Col- lege and Randolph-Macon College.

It is hoped, too, that Vanderbilt Uni- versity, Georgia University, South Carolina University and a few others may enter. Besides these, the following preparatory schools have entered: Washington School for Boys, Army and Navy School
